JIM:

Oh ok, sure thing!

Maybe it's time to create one so the absence of "use of force reports" are noticed by your staff for example.

I wonder what the policy/protocol is at MPD?

They must have been recently updated it at MPD?

They prolly just missed the use of force in Jesse Stevens case from that DARN "date reviewed:10-9-1971" typo by James Caton! Sheesh!

I'll save that for another request, sounds complex already.

It's prolly posted on the MPD website and based on state/FED law too. I think I'm getting it!

Have a great weekend!

Regards,

-Matts Larson

PS Here's a course on Brady law 2017 from the um law school Incase you or others in your office find it helpful.
