Subject: CORPORATE LIVE WIRE GLOBAL AWARDS 2021/22 Nominations
Date: Tuesday, August 24, 2021 10:54:00 AM

Good Day,

We have now opened the nomination stage of the 2021/22 CorporateLiveWire Global Awards and we would like to invite you to be involved.

We are reviewing submissions for companies, individuals, products and services and ultimately provide recognition for the most deserving entrants.

The Corporate LiveWire platform provides the latest news on business, legal, travel & lifestyle developments from around the world. Content is available in hard copy print media as well as online features, interviews, events and corporate networking opportunities. The awards recognizes the important work of businesses & individuals and celebrate their many successes and outstanding service over the year.

To learn more about the media platform then please visit https://www.corporatelivewire.com

If you wish to access any subscriber only content on the website then please let me know and I will provide this on a complimentary basis.

Questionnaire & categories

We provide all nominees with the opportunity to submit additional information that may support them being successful in the awards. This could include details on services, innovative practices, positive media attention, previous recognition or direct us to online testimonials and customers' client reviews. This may all have a positive impact on the decision making.

If you are keen to be considered in the awards then I can send you a short questionnaire to complete.

Once all applications have been received, companies and individuals will be submitted to the administration team for review and the winners will be selected.

What do I need to do?

If you interest on providing further evidence to support your nomination then we would need to receive this by 10th August Our administration team will then process your application for the judging panel. Questionnaires will be provided once participation in the awards is confirmed.

Tell me more about the award programme

Every year, we invite companies to talk to us about their offerings and provide information on why they are worthy of recognition in the awards. We receive submissions from businesses of all sizes from around the world and pick a selection of winners in a range of categories.

The awards are a free to enter programme that provides exposure to subscribers looking for information on the very best companies and services.

Once the submissions have been reviewed then winners will be notified by a member of the awards team. Each winner will receive coverage in the awards magazine as well as the website, press releases and at several events.

Are there any costs?

Unlike many awards programmes, Corporate LiveWire offers no options for companies or individuals to make any financial contributions prior to this year's decisions being made. This includes booking of seats at events, advertorial space or partnership opportunities of any kind.

Winners are chosen by our independent panel made up of industry experts and not by our in-house team directly. This ensures the most deserving are picked each year and decisions cannot be seen as being influenced by current relationships.

I would be happy to answer any other questions you may have.

Kind Regards,

Peter Clarke
