

Lewis & Clark Leadership Team Meeting Minutes

October 7, 2020

5:30 PM

Zoom Meeting

Present: Terri Conner, Dave Westfall, Jeff Miller, Jerry Dirnberger, James Walters, Colleen Biehl, Office of the Neighborhoods: Kelly Elam and Colin Woodrow

Terry Conner moderated the meeting.

1. All were welcomed. James Walters was introduced as an interested neighborhood resident, who has attend several meetings.
2. The September 2, 2020 Leadership Team minutes approved as posted.
3. Joint Traffic Safety Committee letter – Jeff Miller presented the approved letter from the Joint Traffic Safety Committee. Rose Park had voted to have their Leadership Team member names on the letter. Terry took a roll call vote on having the all Lewis and Clark team membership's names to appear on the letter. The following voted yah – Colleen Biehl, Dave Westfall, Jerry Dirnberger and Terri Conner, no nays. Terri will contact Kathleen Hanson and Susan Schott to see if they want their names to be on the letter. Jeff will format the letter to include all the names when he knows all to be included. Thank you, Jeff, for all the hard work on this top priority of the neighborhood.
4. Update on Bancroft Ponds Projects - Colleen reported that there are no new updated on any of the pending ponds projects.
 - Birding Area – Colleen Biehl reported that the Biehl's and Terri Conner planted a dozen or so plants with Molly Dillingham last Tuesday.
 - Snapping Turtles Traps- No report.
5. Newsletter Update - Kathleen Hanson sent an email out to inform the council that the newsletter should be mailed out in a day or two, so watch your mailboxes.
6. Office of the Neighborhood Report – Colin Woodrow introduced himself and told of his background in housing. There are a few new plans to update the neighborhoods through a survey and a profile for each neighborhood. He would like to hire work study students to help with these projects. The Large Grant Proposal update should be ready this late winter. He will have a Zoom Community Forum Meeting on October 22. Thank you, Colin.
