- Minutes from 07.11.2023 meeting approved
- Majority of the meeting was devoted to finalizing plans and logistics for the Block Party in conjunction with Neighbors in Action (NIA). Susan Mason provided a map of the proposed setup of tables, location of Leadership Team meeting, food trucks, and DJ stand which was approved. Food vendors will need a permit to operate within a city park, Kalina will help facilitate this.
- Agenda for Leadership Team meeting to be held at the Block Party was outlined by Will and approved.
- Funds for #10 (TEN) $50 Yokes gift cards for the raffle approved. Sean McCoy offered a $50 gift card to his farm stand- Frank's Little Farm- as well. Mark will create the physical gift card to be awarded. Clint and Will are creating a raffle ticket with an attached QR code for a brief Microsoft survey. They will utilize data from the April meeting Table Talks to create questions regarding major concerns/desired changes for the neighborhood.
- New bylaws approved without edit. These will be up for a vote again in 2 years
- Office of Neighborhoods report: The City is planning on re-opening the Johnson St. Shelter for a 12 month period. There is a tentative plan for a public meeting regarding this on 08.22.2023- the day after the City approves the Budget on 08.21.2023. Time and place TBD.
- No Community Forum update

- Public Comment: Sean McCoy gave a brief introduction to himself as he is currently running for Ward 6 Representative.

Next Leadership Team meeting will be held at the Rosauers seating area on 09.06.2023 at 1800. Agenda will include a debrief of the Block Party in conjunction with NIA members.
