Jenn Worrell- FTF Leadership Team
Anna Sala- Neighborhood resident

Absent:

Jenny Mish- FTF Leadership Team

- Block party debrief. Successful block party in conjunction with Neighbors in Action (NIA) with excellent attendance. Looking to next year- consider changing the date of the party to coincide with the first day of school.
- Neighborhood Action Plan Guide was reviewed, and approved to be used in the next year
- Neighborhood grant proposals will close at the end of November. Jenn will reach out to a resident who maintains public planters to let them know that these grants are available. Education on Neighborhood Grants a possible topic of discussion for the next General Meeting.
- The Missoula Redevelopment Agency has opened up the Johnson St. Shelter location for development proposals. They are interested in possibly attending the November Leadership Team Meeting, and are welcome and encouraged to come if their schedule allows. Due to travel and other commitments, this meeting is proposed for Wednesday, November 20th at 6:30 in the Rosauers seating area.
- Neighborways update from Clint. Focus is shifting to Schilling and Maurice streets. The organization is looking for neighborhood input and continuing education on this plan.
- Community Forum report from Clint. Parks and Rec has completed their PROST with the final report on a 10-year plan to be released in the Spring. Public comment remains open. Our Missoula Project draft land use plan will have events throughout the month of October for public comment and education, most of which will take place at the Missoula Public Library. Plan is projected to be finalized next Spring.
- Neighborhood budget report deferred to next meeting
- Discussion regarding reaching out to Parks and Rec regarding the National Wildlife Federation sign deferred to next meeting
- Neighborhood report to City Council will take place Monday October 28th, Jenn will present. Topics to include Block Party report, Neighborhood Action Plan, and Neighborways.
- Discussion to permanently move meetings to the 3rd Wednesday of the month, but final approval deferred until the whole team is able to give input
- Public comment on non-agenda items. Clint gave an update on the Missoula Strategy to Address Houselessness Subcommittee, they are refining their strategy and will continue to work with City and County leadership.
