

Lewis & Clark Neighborhood Leadership Team Meeting Minutes

October 2, 2024

5:30 pm

Lewis & Clark Elementary School, Room 171

1. Welcome to the new members and introductions were made between the existing members and the new members.
Roll Call: Terry Conner, Colleen Biehl, Eric Warren, Clair Battaglia, Kathleen Hanson. new members Bill Van Horn and Devin Landry (Jennifer Watkiss was not able to attend) , Kalina Pritchard, Office of the Neighborhoods
2. August 7, 2024 minutes approved as posted.
3. Treasurer Report- Colleen Biehl has no report. She is waiting for the final bills from the general meeting expenses. Kalina has received the Big Dipper bill and gave her the expenses for the next report.
4. Items for Discussion
 - *Sandwich boards revamp: Claire Battaglia and Colleen Biehl will check further on what can be done for the signs.
 - *Survey and QR Code. The survey did help with the neighborhood priorities and will help with future planning. Suggestions were benches, beautifying calming circles (Ben Weiss to be contacted, Kathleen will check into) and planting trees.
We are not sure if people used the QR Code.
 - Speakers: The Neighborhood Watch, Tony Raland, will be asked to speak at the November Meeting.
5. Summary of General Meeting - Sunday, September 8, 2024
Tabling event - This was a huge success! People were very interested and engaged. Table leaders were enthusiastic with this style of presenting.
Meeting - Meeting went very well. City Council reps fielded Q & A well.
Childcare - We had only one child, but the attendant from Parks & Rec, was very engaged with him. Will offer next year.
Date for 2025 - Sunday, September 14, 2025 3-5pm
6. Neighborhood City Forum Report - Colleen Biehl reported that the entire meeting was on the Homeless issue. It was very informative and the Mayor and City Council liaison to the Forum fielded a Q & A at the end.
7. Office of the Neighborhood's Report – Kalina announced that the Leadership Team Training is on October 8 from 5-8pm, pizza served. Kalina said we were to give the our neighborhood update to the City Council's November Meeting. Eric will attend and give update.
8. No public Comment
