

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, public transit benefits all of us in Missoula by reducing traffic and parking congestion, improving air quality and making our city more equitable and accessible to all; and

WHEREAS, public transit operators fill an important role in our community by getting people where they need and choose to go, from work and school to medical appointments, grocery stores, social and civic commitments and other essential components of meaningful community engagement; and

WHEREAS, public transit operators frequently go above and beyond the call of duty, working long hours and safely operating our transit system in rain, snow, extreme cold, wind and a wide variety of challenging circumstances; and

WHEREAS, public transit operators help build a connected and resilient community by knowing their passengers, celebrating their successes, aiding them in times of crisis and greeting them every day; and

WHEREAS, Mountain Line and UDASH provide essential services to our community at zero fare for the benefit of all residents and visitors of Missoula.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Andrea Davis, Mayor of the City of Missoula, in the State of Montana, hereby recognize the 18th day of March, 2025 as:

TRANSIT OPERATOR APPRECIATION DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the City of Missoula, in the State of Montana, to be affixed at Missoula, Montana, this 18th day of March, in the year two thousand twenty-five.
