Council groves will be applying for a neighborhood grant in order to help fund a rectangular rapid flashing beacon (RRFB) on Third street across from Council Groves. Many residents have talked about the dangers of crossing third street and have especially a hard time because the nearest crosswalk is a few blocks down the other way from the bus station which many residents utilize. An RRFB costs approximately $20,000. Council Groves' Board of directors promised to fund the remaining $14,000 to complete the project if they were able to secure $6,000 of funding from the neighborhood grant.
