

Please join us if you live in our own a business located in the Riverfront Neighborhood between Russell and Higgins from 5th street to the Clark Fork River for a free Pool Party on Saturday, January 29 at Currents Pool and Headwaters meeting room. There will be free swim for all ages from 6:00-8:00 p.m. with a Neighborhood Council meeting will be from 6:30-7:30. Pizza, snacks, and beverages will be provided.

Agenda/items for discussion:

- Philip Maechling from the Office of Planning and Grants will discuss the current planning documents that affect the neighborhood and how those plans are being implemented.

Other items intended to be discuss may include questions such as:

- Do the neighborhood plans need to be updated?
- Should we plan a Riverfront Charrette?
- When will the California Street Bridge and connecting Riverfront trail be completed?
- Are there any new plans to develop Russell Street?
- Could the South side of Orange Street commercial area be included in development plans?
- How is the Historic Overlay progressing?
- Do we need improved sidewalks, bicycle and pedestrian trails?
- What are the plans for the Old Mill Site Development?
- Are there any changes planned for the Osprey stadium and how is the neighborhood being impacted by stadium activities?
- How will the new boat ramp and Max Wave impact the area?
- Are there any improvements that neighbors would like to do with a Small Community Grant?
- Can we develop neighborhood communication with internet connections?

Finally, there will be an election of new leadership members.
