Subject: Lower Rattlesnake dam directions
Date: Tuesday, September 12, 2017 10:29:25 AM

Dear City Council members and news reporters,

We're looking forward to our visit to the lower Rattlesnake dam this afternoon, now under public ownership as part of Missoula Water.

In case you're not quite clear on the location, the dam's address is 5309 Rattlesnake Drive. Take Van Buren Street, which turns into Rattlesnake Drive. Make the 90-degree right turn at Lincolnwood. Continue, and the driveway for 5309 will be on the left side 100 feet north of the intersection of Larch and Rattlesnake Drive.

The tour begins at 3 p.m. Give me a call if you have any questions.

Hi,

This is Jenifer from IRM Solutions. I am writing this email to discuss about your online needs.

A clean online reputation for your business or persona is now possible!

Bad reviews happen. And there are a lot of ill-intentioned individuals out there looking for ways to make you look bad.

Fighting back is never a good idea as social media often amplifies the damage done to companies who defend themselves.

So, what to do when bad reviews are crippling your ability to get customers?

Intelligent Reputation Management Solution is a solid online agency that truly understands the importance of having a good reputation when doing business. For more than seven years, we have successfully helped businesses and internet personalities recover from nasty reviews and toxic PR campaigns.

We permanently delete from the internet and Google Index:

- Anonymous blogs
- Investor attorneys' entries
- Negative forum entries
- Bad PR
- Hate sites
- Damaging reviews

They say the internet never forgets. We say there is always a way!

Reply to this email today, and send us links to any negative entries you have on the internet to receive a free demonstration. We will delete all negative content and links in 20 minutes.

Best regards

Jenifer Walker
