ERRATA: I omitted an important word:

The man hanged himself FROM the Madison Street Bridge ...making this all the more egregious!

A MAN HANGED HIMSELF IN A MADISON STREET SUICIDE THURSDAY. DID YOU KNOW ABOUT IT? NO? WELL, POLICE DIDN'T INFORM SPOUSE, EITHER...WHO FILED MISSING PERSONS REPORT.

Along with the closure of the MPD public window at City Hall, the elimination of the ability to post comments on the MPD Facebook page, the frequent two-week delays in releasing names of persons shot to death by police, etc., this exemplifies the opacity of police conduct in this community, and the necessity for the people of Missoula to pass a ballot measure establishing a citizen-comprised police oversight/review board.

This story related in NextDoor by the decedent's spouse is unfathomable by most people. I cannot begin to imagine providing details for a missing person report to an agency that already knew my spouse was dead, but didn't say so.

This has to stop....

ALONG WITH the sophomoric interruption of City Council citizen commenters by Councilperson Stacy Anderson with stupid, inapposite "Points of Order" whenever police misconduct or names of City officials who abused citizens' rights are mentioned, and the authoritarian chilling of free expression by purported progressive Interim Mayor Hess.

Dear Council Members,

I am a Rattlesnake resident and I support the City accepting the donation of a conservation easement on the Ten Spoon Vineyard and Winery. This will add valuable open space and wildlife habitat, among other assets, and the expenditure for legal and due diligence is modest in exchange for the value of the donation. I strongly urge the City to approve.

Sincerely,

Victoria Jenkins
