Subject: City of Missoula Zoning Designations

City Councilors,

Attached you will find our most recent zoning analysis, which will be included as a graphic in the forthcoming land use equity audit. In direct response to Councilor Anderson's question last night, 44% of our zoned lands are exclusively zoned for single-dwellings. Please let me know if you have any additional questions

Ginny Merriam <MerriamG@ci.missoula.mt.us>

Law enforcement will become involved only if there is a threat of violence to the city and Poverello employees.

The Temporary Safe Outdoor Space new hard-sided shelter facility officially opened on Thursday, January 5. The TSOS is just off West Broadway near the new Trinity affordable housing complex.

I come too realize their is no reply.

It will be realized appropriately.

PERSONAL COMMENTS BY CITIZENS PRAISING MISSOULA'S MAYOR and other City officials are OK, but "personal criticisms" of them are contrary to City Council "rules of decorum." How is this not unconstitutional, content-based censorship like that by the Scarborough, MA City Council pursuant to its "civility code" struck down by the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts last month, which the Justices unanimously said "appears to cross the line into viewpoint discrimination: allowing lavish praise but disallowing harsh criticism of government officials"?
