- Minutes from the previous meeting approved
- Sean McCoy noted he was running for Ward 6 City Council
- Majority of the meeting was devoted to discussion of the recent Block Party in conjunction with NIA. Topics included plans for making next year's celebration more organized with the main issues being questions around permitting for food trucks, etc. Other topics discussed included timing of the party, possible use of a sound system for music and announcements, cleaning before and after the event, and designating individuals to specific tasks (food trucks, tables, activities, etc.). Also discussed the possibility of involving Parks and Rec earlier in the planning phase to iron out permitting and other rules. No official plans for the 2024 Block Party were made today.
- No Office of Neighborhoods update
- No public comment

Next meeting will be held Tuesday, November 14th in the Rosauers seating area.

Agenda items:

Block Party survey data results presentation, Spring meeting planning.
