1. Explanation of “Neighborhood Character Overlay” - Jon Wilkins, City Councilman- Explained the process for exempting a specific neighborhood to the ADU ordinance. Specific boundaries must be drawn. Then a petition needs to be distributed to neighbors. The percent in favor to present to the City Council is unclear. Mr. Wilkins suggested the neighborhood put together the petition and submit to him.
 2. Urban Forestry Management Plan - Chris Boza, City Forester- Draft management plan is in place which will be sent out to stakeholders- those with direct economic benefit. They have done outreach to the community for input. January 29th two sessions will be the public workshop at the Community Center in the Mall.
 3. Treasurers Report - Carrie Schreiber- Bob moves to approve minutes. Deke Seconds. Motion passes.
 4. Minutes of last meeting - Deke Tidwell
 5. Community Forum Report - Bob Martin- Party only. No other business.
 6. Office of Neighborhoods Report - Corena Maurer. Outstanding neighborhood volunteer of the year award- group or individual. Nominations are being accepted. There is a place on the Missoula Neighborhoods website to submit nominations as well. Deadline is March 4.
 7. Plan long term Park needs - McCloud - Boyd - Bellevue - Carol Ulrigg- There is still some

8. New Business- None
9. Public comment on non-agenda items- Jennifer Bernosky (commercial/industrial account rep) from Republic services stopped by to discuss the possibility of a city-wide recycling program. This would likely be a single stream with the materials sent to Seattle for separation and processing. Possibly to roll out summer 2015.
10. Announcements - The next leadership team meeting will be February 11, 2015
11. Adjourn
